Dental Disease

My dog's breath is pretty bad. Is there something that I can feed him to make it smell better?

Elevate your dogs' upper lip and look at his molars. They should be white and shiny. If they look brown near the gums you should schedule an appointment with your veterinarian to discuss a dental cleaning. Dirty teeth and infected gums that usually come with them often cause a foul order, pain and the potential for tooth loss. Every time your dog chews he may experience a bacterial shower into his blood stream which can affect his heart valves, kidneys and other organs. Have the teeth cleaned and discuss ways to prevent dental disease in the future.

Halloween in Wareham

It's that time of year, the time for some spooky, silly fun. But parents, rest assured: at the Gleason Family YMCA on Sunday, October 30, Halloween means a safe and imaginative experience, for little goblins and their families alike.

So bring the whole family to Halloween at the YMCA where there will be fun for kids of all ages. For the past year, the Gleason Family YMCA has hosted a variety of organized activities, this year including a Halloween Hayride, pumpkin painting and Halloween treats and all in a safe, supervised environment. Sure, Halloween means bags of treats; but it's also a day for kids to use their imaginations in the costumes that they create and wear.

"Halloween can be a creative and social experience for all," said Jo-Ann Watson, Marketing and Development Director at the Gleason Family YMCA, "and families want to know that their children are being looked after and, at the same time, engaged in enjoyable, worthwhile activities on Halloween night. Our YMCA is not just a safe, exciting place for kids but a cool destination for little kids, teens and grownups," Ms. Watson said.

The Gleason Family YMCA suggests considering these precautions before heading to the Y or trick-or-treating in the neighborhood:

- Wear light-colored, flame retardant costumes;
- Wear shorter costumes to prevent tripping, and with nighttime reflectors;
- Use face make-up — no hoods or masks that obscure the face and vision;
- Take younger children door-to-door in daylight hours;
- Trick-or-treat within your neighborhood, only to homes you know;
- Ensure young children escorted by adults or responsible older sibling;
- Carry a working flashlight;
- Be alert to auto traffic, crossing safely, according to rules;
- Have parents or other adults inspect treats; and
- Remind children: accept no rides from strangers.

"This year, Halloween at the Gleason Family YMCA will deliver all the treats and spooky fun that will delight children of every age, in the safe and caring, family atmosphere that characterizes our Y," said Ms. Watson. "So come to Halloween at the Gleason Family YMCA — where there's not a ghost of a chance that you'll be

— prior to the October 24 and October 25 Town Meeting and Special Election votes. Although we generally encourage this open forum for discussion and debate, the last go-round ended up being nothing more than a quid pro quo in which supporters and detractors raced to submit more and decidedly longer litanies supporting their side of the argument. ### Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Friends of the Plumb Memorial Library hosted their Annual Book Sale on October 1. This event was made possible due to a few individuals who continuously donate their time and efforts to our small library.

Maureen Bessey and Nina Schneider spent a tremendous amount of time sorting through all of the books in preparation for the sale. On the day of the sale, Nina, along with Deb Davis, Robin Rounseville, Rozalind Braza and Sarah Ross, lugged boxes and boxes of books out of the basement and onto the library lawn. Without the active participation of these individuals, this fundraiser would not have been possible. All proceeds from this sale go directly into funding children's programs.

A thanks also to the many individuals who baked goodies for us to sell during this event: Tina Rood, Pam White, Tabitha Schneider, Helen Johnson, Diane Battaglia, Sarah Ross, Beth Vercellone, and Jill Santos.

New to us this year was the use of a tent donated by Stephen Sperry of Sperry Tents. Each year, people spend time browsing through the books on the library lawn under a very hot sun. With the tent in place this year, people of all ages enjoyed the comfortable shade while browsing through the many boxes of material that had been donated by individuals throughout the year. The Friends are very appreciative of Mr. Sperry's donation and the time he spent putting it up. A special thanks goes out to all the people who donated items in sellable condition to the library.

The Friends organization is a vital part of the successful programs and services the library offers to the Rochester community. The group will be holding their annual meeting on October 13 at 6:30 pm. Everyone is invited to attend and the group is always seeking new members. ### To the Editor:

Troop 53, Mattapoisett Boy Scouts, would like to thank the Vaitses family for their generous donation to the troop.

On Tuesday evening Steve Vaitses and his son Ross presented to the troop donations made in memory of his grandfather Allen Holmes Vaitses. These funds will help the troop in many ways: equipment procurement, troop activities and summer camp for underprivileged scouts, to name just a few. Again, many thanks to the Vaitses family.

Sincerely,

Jim O'Dowd, Scoutmaster

7 cents a day ~ $2.10 a month ~ $25.55 a year ~

The size of the new library is as small as it can be to retain state grant funding. The trustees made additional cuts this summer wherever possible resulting in a no-frills, but adequate library which can serve the town for generations. If the current proposal (in which the town pays less than 40% of the cost) is abandoned, local taxpayers alone will still have to pay almost as much to repair the current building and to make it handicapped accessible. The result will be a library with less useable space than now. Hard to imagine, since currently the Young Adult section is housed in a stairwell!

a year living with an AFS family in Switzerland.

The local AFS Student Chapter is made up of Old Rochester Regional High School students interested in learning about other cultures, along with our foreign exchange students. The AFS Parent Chapter is made up of adult members of the tri-town area who volunteer time and support to ensure the continued success of the student club, the international students, and their host families. The group meets monthly to plan fundraising campaigns and to help plan student trips and gatherings. The club contributes to defray the costs of AFS student activities and to provide scholarship aid to students from ORR High School who wish to study abroad. This year the Parent Chapter is chaired by Kristina McDavid of Marion and the Student Club is co-chaired by Amber Zablosky, Nick DaSalvo, Erin Coulter and Garrison Borthwick. The student club faculty co-advisors at Geoffrey Kelsey and Meredith Wickman.

Again, please join the AFS Club for their Pizza Night at Nick's. ## ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

Faithful Lower Cape announce a joint meeting to be held on Sunday, October 16 at 2:00 pm in the West Barnstable Community Center on Route 149 between Routes 6 and 6A.

The main purpose of this meeting is to share highlights of the National Convocation of VOTF held in Indianapolis, Indiana this past July. Tapes of speakers at the conference will be shown. Among these are Reverend Donald Cozzens, a theologian and author of The Changing Face of the Priesthood; Reverend Tom Doyle, the first recipient of VOTF's Priest of Integrity award. He is recognized for his support of survivors. The final video will be Svea Fraser's presentation at the convocation. She is Chairperson of VOTF Priests' Support working group.

The second objective of this meeting is a brief joint strategy planning session. VOTF believes that all Catholics should educate themselves for future changes that will occur due to the rapidly declining number of priests, the expansion/contraction of facilities, communication issues with some priests and our Bishop, and the drop in financial support for parishes. Those attending the October 16 meeting will help determine the goals and priorities of VOTF Cape Cod affiliates for the next few months.

The third portion of the joint meeting will be devoted to the members of Cape Cod's Voice of the Faithful who attended Reverend Walter Cuenin's final Mass at Our Lady's Church in Newton recently. The Cape Cod group also participated in the walk to the Archbishop's Chancery office on Commonwealth Avenue in Brighton following Father Cuenin's service. This part of the program on October 16 will provide an opportunity for these members to briefly give their observations and relay their thoughts on Father Cuenin's final day as a Pastor.

All clergy and members of the public are most cordially invited to attend this joint meeting. For more information and/or to carpool, please call 508-457-7565.

The SouthCoast Chapter Voice of the Faithful (VOTF) will also be meeting on Thursday, October 20 at the Friends' Meeting House, 103 Marion Road (Route 6) in Mattapoisett, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. The members will be discussing ways of increasing the number of VOTF SouthCoast Affiliate memberships. While attending the Ann's parents' farm was located on County Road in West Wareham not far from the East Rochester Congregational Church, which is now the Rochester Historical Society's Museum. Included among the many stories and vignettes that Ann has so skillfully and charmingly preserved in Cranberry Kids are fond memories of the church, so it is an appropriate setting for her first talk about the book.

Cranberry Kids, published by Rock Village Publishing of Middleborough, is beautifully illustrated by David Blanchette, who also designed the cover. The illustrations depict some of the more amusing adventures which Ann has recalled from her childhood, such as riding Molly, the family cow.

Refreshments will be served after the talk, and Ann will be available to sign copies of her book. The Rochester Historical Society (formerly the East Rochester Congregational Church) is located at 355 County Road in Rochester.

Rochester Plant Swap

The Rochester Green Ways Committee in cooperation with Rabbit Run Nursery will be holding a Perennial Plant Swap on Saturday, October 15 from 8:00 am to 12:00 noon at the Rochester Farmer's Market at the Plumb Corner Mall.

The idea behind the swap is to increase the number of plants the Green Ways Committee has for use in its roadside plantings, while letting the gardeners of Rochester add more variety to their yards. The committee asks each gardener to bring at least two potted perennials to the swap. One plant will be donated to the Green Ways Committee to be used to beautify our roadsides. The other will go onto a swap table and the gardener may then choose another plant to bring home. Each gardener may take home one plant for every two they bring in. Any perennial plant, regardless of how it looks now, bulbs, or small shrubs and trees (no white pines, please!) that are potted and labeled will be accepted.

Members of the Green Ways Committee will be on hand to explain their mission, share refreshments and hold a raffle for a collection of plants, designed to create a small perennial garden, donated by Rabbit Run Nursery.

At this time the Green Ways Committee would like to thank Tom and Lynn Nelson of Rabbit Run Nursery for all they have done to make a drive through Rochester more pleasant. Their nursery consistently provides the town grown healthy plants and trees for our projects. They also seasonally fill and maintain four wooden barrels, provided by the Highway Department — two at Route 105 and North Avenue and one each at Mattapoisett and New Bedford Road and at Vaughan Hill and New Bedford Road. The couple also maintains the triangle at North Avenue and Neck Road.

Neighbors to these projects often aid them and the Green Ways Committee with watering and weeding. Their time and that of the neighbors are a fine example of how volunteerism helps the town.

Happy gardening and hope to see everyone at the Perennial Plant Swap!

Your Questions on Dental Implants

Q How long does the dental implant procedure take? Will I be without teeth or unable to eat for a long time?

A The first phase of treatment is the actual surgical placement of the implants. This procedure is usually done during a single visit. The implant bonding of the jaw bone to the implant) occurs. Through this healing period, you will probably wear your modified denture or temporary bridge to continue normal activities with few restrictions. You will, however, need to follow a modified soft diet for the first couple of weeks after surgery.

The second phase of the procedure involves an evaluation of the implant to ensure that it is firmly imbedded in the bone. The top of the implant will be exposed and a small titanium abutment (post) will be attached to the implant. Modifications will be made to your temporary teeth to allow you to continue wearing them until you complete the next phase of treatment. This second phase usually takes one or two visits.

During the third phase, your new definitive replacement teeth are created and fitted. This involves a series of appointments to make impressions of your mouth and to "try-in" your replacement teeth at key steps in their fabrication. These "try-in sessions" are necessary to ensure that the size, shape, color and fit of your new teeth will completely blend with and match your individual facial characteristics and, if present, your remaining natural teeth. The third phase is usually completed in six to eight weeks.

Mini Dental Implants are an alternative to this three phase scenario. All three phases (noted above) are completed in a single visit. You will wear a six-piece dentures.

MOVIE REVIEW

A Man and His Dog

By Rob Gonsalves
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit. With the voices of Peter Sallis, Ralph Fiennes, and Helena Bonham-Carter. Directed by Nick Park and Steve Box. Running time: 85 minutes. MPAA rating: G.

On some level, Nick Park is obviously quite mad. At his award-winning Aardman Animations studio, he spends years at a time fiddling about with pieces of clay in order to tell stories about a poultry revolution or a lycanthropic bunny. Such men in less enlightened times were confined for their own safety. Fortunately, this is 2005 and Park's particular madness — or genius, take your pick — is on view once again in Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit. The movie is the long-overdue feature debut of Park's beloved creations Wallace, a cheese-obsessed inventor, and Gromit, his dog, who can only be described as "long-suffering." Wallace considers himself quite clever, but his loyal servant Gromit silently begs to differ; they are the Claymation heirs of P.G. Wodehouse's Wooster and Jeeves.

The Curse of the Were-Rabbit finds Wallace and Gromit as "humane pest eliminators," sucking up hungry rabbits with an elaborate vacuum and keeping them penned up in their basement. (The rabbits are well-fed; Gromit chops up dozens of carrots a day, scooping them down a chute into feeding bowls.) Their services are especially in demand due to the impending Veg Competition, for which various townspeople grow vegetables of unusual size, and would prefer not to see them nibbled by rabbits. The pair's best client is Lady Tottington (voice of Helena Bonham Carter, in her second stop-motion effort this season after Corpse Bride), who admires their non-lethal methods. Their adversary is the buffoonish hunter Victor Quartermaine (Ralph Fiennes, having fun dropping his seriousness), who thinks there's only one way to skin a rabbit.

Through circumstances too intricately bizarre to get into here (Park manages to wink at both A Clockwork Orange and The Fly, though), an experiment goes awry and one of the captured rabbits appears to have grown huge, moon-driven, and insatiably peckish. A were-rabbit, if you will. It's a one-joke premise, but part of Nick Park's madness/genius is the skill and detail with which he approaches it. As with his previous feature film Chicken Run, within five minutes you forget you're watching Claymation, and within ten minutes you forget you're watching animation at all. You're sucked (as if by Wallace's bunny vacuum) into a world of Rube Goldberg contraptions and mutely sardonic dogs — Park does wonders with Gromit, who has only his eyes to emote with — and unaccountably satisfying grace notes like the nocturnal howl of the Were-Rabbit, which sparks a rash of howling among the normal bunnies.

Any movie in which rabbits howl has my fast affection. And Park inserts any number of pop-culture references for his adult fans, not only the obvious Universal Monsters tributes but a brief nod to Watership Down (listen for "Bright Eyes," that film's Art Garfunkel ballad, on a car radio) and a possible dialogue hat-tip to either John Updike or Pink Floyd. Yet the film has its own antic pulse, and the animation obeys every cartoon-physics law of momentum and inertia. Even if the movie were utterly laughless, its blend of machine logic and surreal fantasy would fascinate the eye. Its very stop-motion roughness makes it friendlier and warmer than something like "A Christmas Caper," the DreamWorks short starring the Madagascar penguins which plays before the film. The short is funny and slick but has an inescapable corporate feel — computer animation simply lacks the soul of something hand-drawn or hand-sculpted.

Nick Park will turn forty-seven in December. Selfishly, I sometimes find myself wishing he hadn't picked a medium that takes so long, because it's been half a decade already since Chicken Run, and he can't have very many more five-years-in-the-making films left in him. It seems that he and Tim Burton are the only ones still interested in long-form stop-motion (Will Vinton has been silent lately, since being ousted from his own studio two years ago), while everyone else says "Why even bother? We can do that on a Mac." But not everything can or should be done on a Mac, and Nick Park is like someone who's still doing silent films or shooting in black and white, not for the money but for the love of doing it. God knows you have to love manipulating clay figures millimeter by millimeter for years at a time to do it for a living. I sure wouldn't want to do it. But I want to see Nick Park keep doing it.

Charity Begins at Home

Not to take anything away from all the good, honest and heartfelt efforts of so many local individuals and organizations in the SouthCoast area who have really stepped up to the plate to assist the recent victims of Hurricane Katrina in the southern Gulf States, but I'd just like to highlight a few of the lesser-known local benefits this week which, I fear, may get lost in the shuffle of media attention given to the higher-profile national event. After all, charity begins at home.

First up is nine-year-old Meghan Cote of Mattapoisett, who is pictured above getting her previously "very long hair" shorn off recently by her friend Christy Rapoza at Leonard's Cutters in Fairhaven. Miss Cote decided she wanted to donate her hair this past summer to a group called "Locks of Love," which makes and provides wigs for children who are suffering from medical ailments which cause long-term hair loss.

In a letter she sent to The Wanderer last week, Miss Cote wrote: "I hope my hair will make a wig for another child who needs the hair more than I do and make them smile! When my hair grows long enough again, I will donate (it) to 'Locks of Love' to help someone else."

Those who wish to take their cue from Meghan's selfless act are encouraged to visit www.locksoflove.org or call them toll-free 1-888-896-1588.

Although I've previously devoted space on this page to Gretchan Pyne of Wareham, who authored the touching and compelling Lulu's Rose-Colored Glasses as a tribute to her late daughter Olivia (pictured top, far right), her ongoing efforts to bring families together are always worth noting. As such, she is spearheading Lulu's Rose Colored YMCA 5K Walk/Run on Saturday, October 15 from 1:00 to 5:00 pm at the Bourne Recreational Area.

Billed as an "Old Fashioned Family Festival," the event will showcase none other than Boston legend and broadcasting pioneer Rex Trailer (above, left), the beloved cowboy character actor who will provide thrills for both the young and young at heart who remember him from his various television shows in the 1950s.

A new documentary on Trailer, titled Rex Trailer's Boomtown, was just released this past summer and features testimonials about Rex from celebrities like Jay Leno, comedian Steven Wright, and Boston mayor Thomas Menino — all of whom grew up watching Trailer's groundbreaking educational children's shows which first originated from Boston.

The 5K event will benefit all children of the YMCA and will also include important child safety information, finger printing, and photo IDs, along with plenty of food, fun and games for the whole family such as karaoke, an egg toss, a clown, pony rides, music, and much more. The FREE event will take place, rain or shine, and free t-shirts will be given to anyone who pledges $25 or more.

For more information on this weekend's "Celebration of Family," please call Gretchan at 508-930-9051 or JoAnn at 508-295-9622.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your moodier side might emerge this week. But the dark period should pass in time for the party-loving Lamb to go on a happy gambol with some very special people this weekend.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Yet again, you show your skill at being able to indulge in your love of the arts this week while still taking care of practical matters, including some still-unfinished business matters.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A potential change might appear to be what you've been looking for. In any event, consider both the negative as well as the positive possibilities before making any sort of decision.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Relationships continue to dominate your aspect this week on a mostly positive level, with just a few problem areas you can smooth over. Also, try to be flexible about travel plans.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You love being on center stage, and while you absolutely purr at the sound of all that praise, be careful not to take on too many commitments at the expense of time spent with loved ones.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might feel that you need to get involved in a matter concerning a friend or relative. But while the issues appear to be cut and dried, they might not be. Get more facts before you act.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A suggestion about a policy change could create heated reactions. Keep your mind open and resist joining in with naysayers unless they can show a real basis for their position.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) While potential career changes warrant your interest, don't ignore current job responsibilities. A personal relationship can also benefit from more of your attention.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Don't guess at what the facts might be if you hope to make the best decision possible. The wise course is to ask direct questions and act on the answers you get.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your efforts involving that pesky problem should soon show positive signs of being resolved. This would allow you to shift some of your focus in another direction.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) While you enjoy well-deserved praise for getting a difficult job done, there's no time to relax. A new challenge looms. Expect more support from a once-strong critic.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might still have explaining to do about your decision, but support grows as you continue to make your case. You might also want to start making plans for the upcoming holidays.

BORN THIS WEEK: You insist on making decisions based on facts, not on popular opinions. Have you considered a career in science?

I found the aardvark!

We're at it again. Starting this week, and every week to follow, we will once again be hiding the aardvark somewhere in the newspaper. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down page 68 as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

As a special Halloween Aardvark Giveaway, we will be giving out a Halloween Gift Basket to the winner of our monthly "I Found the Aardvark Contest". This basket will include over five pounds of candy, stuffed aardvarks, a Wanderer T-shirt and anything else we can find in the giveaway drawer! The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please. We may even be able to put together a couple of runner up giveaways, so be sure to enter!

To enter, simply find the aardvark in this issue (or the October 20 issue), then go to our web page and select the link "I'm a Wanderer" and from there you will see the "I Found the Aardvark" entry page. If you would like to enter by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

Deadline for the Halloween Gift Basket is noon time on Friday, October 27. Good luck, and happy hunting!
